Diversified Miners Mar-Q Preview, & updated costs for ME conflict impacts

We preview the March quarterly reporting period for the Australian Diversified Miners and Bulks. We are watching for impacts of usual wet-season weather in both the Pilbara of WA but also QLD's coal mining regions. Also key will be guidance and commentary on costs, given Middle East conflict and dramatic escalation in crude oil and diesel prices YTD. We explore potential impacts in a range of cost scenarios here.

Costs: What are the potential Middle East impacts on opex?

Given crude oil prices have rallied +60-70% YTD, and regional diesel prices up as much as >90% YTD as refining margins surge, attention will be focused on guidance and commentary regarding costs. Initial analysis for the iron ore miners suggests cost sensitivities could be in the range of US$2-3/t. When added to current guidance, BHP's costs could increase by ~US$2.4/t, RIO by ~US$2.6/t, and FMG by ~US$3.0/t on a combination of diesel, FX, and general mining inflation, if sustained for an extended period. However, uncertainties are high regarding i) duration of elevated energy prices, ii) potential diesel supply risks under protracted Strait of Hormuz tightness, and iii) likely extended normalisation timeframes under a de-escalation scenario.

Mar-Q: What are the key watch points & catalysts:

- BHP (22nd Apr): Iron Ore ahead, Copper in-line, Coal behind consensus. Watching any outsized impact to realised price, in the context of CMRG negotiations noting UBS -3% below street.
- RIO (21st Apr): Iron Ore below, while Copper, Aluminium and Lithium all above consensus volumes. Potential downside risk to iron ore shipments noting they have lost ~8Mt in Mar-Q from weather (cyclones) in the Pilbara.
- FMG (23rd Apr): Iron Ore shipments a touch below, while realised price a touch above consensus. Progress on Iron Bridge ramp up key.
- AAI (17th Apr Au): Alumina and Aluminium unit costs below consensus. Aluminium shipment and production touch below and Alumina in line with consensus, focus on costs given Middle East disruptions.
- S32 (22nd Apr): Last contribution from Mozal, normalised contribution from GEMCO, potential very modest outage impacts at Worsely. New CEO will see interest in further potential for portfolio optimisation.
- MIN (30th Apr): Weather impacts, with at least two instances of MIN sailing bulk ships and TSVs out of the way of cyclones. Focus on lithium portfolio with sell down to POSCO, while potential restart of Bald Hill could be considered given increasingly supportive market dynamics.
- WHC (28th Apr): Favourable weather in the quarter in NSW and some seasonal disruptions in QLD. Costs in focus given Middle East energy/diesel disruption
- CRN (30th Apr): Focus on Mammoth Underground restart and ramp up progress after early Jan-26 roof fall and fatality. Progress on cost out may slow given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.

DRIVERS OF INDUSTRY COST INFLATION

Source: ABS, UBS

Diesel crack spreads have blown out dramatically since ME conflict broke out and the Strait of Hormuz closed to free passage. While spreads and diesel prices have retreated somewhat, prices remain around Ukraine conflict peaks and depend on effective ceasefire and Strait of Hormuz re-opening

The stronger AUD vs the USD is likely to see both US$ costs and US$ commodity prices higher than otherwise

The iron ore cost curve lifts and steepens in response to higher crude oil (ie: diesel) prices, thanks to the twin impacts of higher energy costs and higher shipping costs

Key Watch Points & Catalysts

- Production: Iron Ore ahead, Copper in-line, Coal behind Visible Alpha consensus
- Realised Price: We forecast BHP to realise ~US$83/t FOB iron ore. This is -3% below Visible Alpha consensus. We remain below consensus amid ongoing CMRG negotiations and observed wider discounts of select BHP products vs peers.
- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- Pilbara energy sell down completion to GIP (expected 2H-26), and Antamina silver-stream deal with Wheaton Precious Metals Corp.
- Balance sheet value unlock, with Chile desalination and pipeline assets seen as potential next value unlock transaction (est ~$4b).
- New CEO-elect Brandon Craig to commence 1-July-26. We view Craig as the strongest overall internal candidate for the CEO role after a strong and impressive run as President BHP Americas, then before that, President WAIO.

Key Watch Points & Catalysts

- Realised price, although not disclosed at the quarterly, will remain in focus given ongoing CMRG negotiations with industry peers. We watch for any commentary around market conditions.
- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- Mar-Q production, with RIO noting they have lost ~8Mt in Mar-Q from weather (cyclones) in the Pilbara but plan to recover ~4Mt through the rest of FY26. A cyclone related shut-in at Gove/Weipa/Amrun may also impact shipments/guidance, although RIO Bauxite has been performing very strongly.
- Value unlock, with RIO reviewing Borate and Titanium/Mineral Sands, but also thought to be considering sell-down of its Pilbara energy assets (similar to BHP).
- Restructuring as per RIO's Capital Markets Day "Simpler, Stronger, Smarter" strategy.
- Projects: Ramp up of Simandou through CY26/27E; ongoing ramp up of Oyu Tolgoi underground; progress at Rincon lithium, Winu and Resolution copper.

Key Watch Points & Catalysts

- Shipments, given 2 disruptive cyclone events in the March quarter, including both disruptions to shipments but also potential damage (we suspect minimal to nil material impacts).
- Realised prices will be watched, given tight low grade discounts but also ongoing CMRG negotiations with industry peers.
- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- New Hematite life-of-mine plan and timing of beneficial cost impacts from lower strip ratio.
- Iron Bridge ramp up progress.

Key Watch Points & Catalysts

- Shipments. UBS aluminium shipment forecasts are 5% below consensus as we assume shipments broadly track production, while consensus factors in inventory drawdowns.
- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- Aluminum price and impact on the aluminium market from the dislocation / disruption / damage in the Middle East, with offline smelters expected to take 6-12mths to restart.
- Aluminium premiums (U.S. Midwest, EU, Japan) as an indicator of looming tightness in the trade and additional boost to AAI's realised price.
- Australian mine approvals: AA continued to progress its Australian mine approvals (submitted WA EPA responses to comments in Jan), expecting a final EPA recommendation in Jun-26 & State & Federal approvals end-26.
- Mar-Q potential cash outflow related to seasonal working capital build / maintenance.
- San Ciprian updated progress and management guidance.
- S.232 tariff updates (tariff on aluminium metal imports into the U.S.), with the default rate at 50%. Every 10% reduction is ~US$200m EBITDA annualised. USMCA free trade pact up for renegotiation in 2H-CY26 seen as potential catalyst.

Key Watch Points & Catalysts

- Production with last contribution from Mozal, normalised contribution from GEMCO, potential very modest outage impacts at Worsley (from gas supply disruptions related to TC Narelle), and Chile production.
- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- New CEO / Chair strategy & focus will be key, with interest in further potential for portfolio optimisation, and outlining strategic focus between growth and returns, and organic/inorganic growth.
- Cannington life-of-mine optimisation study, with potential pathways at the underground and (modest) open cut that could see LOM extend into the 2040s.
- Hermosa / Taylor progress & capex review (UBSe +US$200m capex).
- Sierra Gorda 4th grinding line FID (UBSe US$700m capex, but slight risk to the upside here)
- Ambler Metals JV progress, with the U.S. government weighing an equity stake in the Ambler Access Road in addition to the structured investment in the Ambler JV last year.

Key Watch Points & Catalysts

- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- Iron ore shipments in Mar-Q. Weather has impacted with at least two instances of MIN sailing bulk ships and TSVs out of the way of cyclones. We expect MIN to report ~7Mt of shipments from Onslow Iron (below cons). Their Pilbara Hub operations should be less impacted, given shipping ex-Port Hedland.
- Realised prices, with strong lithium trades observed.
- Lithium sell down (MIN from 50% to 35% at both Wodgina and Mt Marion) progress / completion to POSCO, with the deal an important driven of deleveraging but also customer alignment, vs lithium prices trading well above those implied by the transaction.
- Bald Hill potential restart, given spodumene prices now considerably recovered from trough levels / markets looking in deficit.
- Project updates in terms of stripping progress / three train operations at Wodgina, float circuit FID at Mt Marion, concentrators 4 & 5 at Wodgina,

Key Watch Points/Catalysts

- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- Production/shipments will be in focus, with favourable weather in the quarter in NSW and some seasonal disruptions in QLD but for the most part the Northern Bowen basin.
- Realised price in QLD, given better PLV HCC markets during the quarter, and commentary on gCNewc market conditions looking into Jun-Q given the ME conflict and impacts on global gas/LNG prices.
- Updates to guidance, with WHC having last disclosed FY26 expected to be strongly upper half on shipments / production and strongly lower half on costs.
- Balance sheet, given 2nd deferred US$500m payment due to be made early Apr-26, and updates on estimated contingent payment for BMA given QLD coal prices have been better in the qtr.

Key Watch Points/Catalysts

- Costs (actual and guided) given the lift in regional diesel prices following the ME conflict.
- Mammoth Underground restart and ramp up progress after early Jan-26 roof fall and fatality.
- CEO (interim) confirmed as Gerry Spindler, and potential tweaking of strategy.
- Mar-Q production / sales performance given weather seasonality in QLD.
- Logan potential pathways forward now that it is heading into C&M.
- Balance sheet deleveraging progress given normalisation of met coal prices and uplift in thermal coal prices due to ME conflict.

Key Watch Points/Catalysts

- CEO Transition: Jason Neal remains Interim MD and CEO, while the active search for a new CEO is ongoing. Neal has experience in the mining sector and capital markets and is expected to remain interim CEO for the next few months.
- Thacker Pass: Phase 1 construction progresses, and we look to further de-risking events at the project ahead of first production, which is anticipated by late CY27.
- Capital Allocation: Management flagged active screening of new royalty and streaming opportunities, with a stated preference for single asset acquisitions over corporate M&A.
- Balance Sheet Strengthening. Completion of non-core precious metals asset divestments (including a remaining A$13m deferred receipt due Aug-26) and ongoing debt reduction improve optionality for capital returns or growth.

Valuation Method and Risk Statement

We point out to investors the potential risks inherent in the mining sector that affect investments in the sector, including, but not limited to, the volatile nature of commodity prices and currencies, which may differ materially from expectations. Furthermore, the sector is exposed to political, financial and operational risks, each of which has the potential to significantly impact company/industry performance. Our valuations for the mining sector are derived using a DCF methodology or combined DCF and EV/EBITDA multiple.

Required Disclosures

This document has been prepared by UBS Securities Australia Ltd, an affiliate of UBS AG. UBS AG, its subsidiaries, branches and affiliates, including former Credit Suisse AG and its subsidiaries, branches and affiliates are referred to herein as "UBS".

For information on the ways in which UBS manages conflicts and maintains independence of its UBS Global Research product; historical performance information; certain additional disclosures concerning UBS Global Research recommendations; and terms and conditions for certain third party data used in research report, please visit <https://www.ubs.com/disclosures>. Unless otherwise indicated, information and data in this report are based on company disclosures including but not limited to annual, interim, quarterly reports and other company announcements. The figures contained in performance charts refer to the past; past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. Additional information will be made available upon request. UBS Securities Co. Limited is licensed to conduct securities investment consultancy businesses by the China Securities Regulatory Commission. UBS acts or may act as principal in the debt securities (or in related derivatives) that may be the subject of this report. This recommendation was finalized on: 10 April 2026 01:44 PM GMT. UBS has designated certain UBS Global Research department members as Derivatives Research Analysts where those department members publish research principally on the analysis of the price or market for a derivative, and provide information reasonably sufficient upon which to base a decision to enter into a derivatives transaction. Where Derivatives Research Analysts co-author research reports with Equity Research Analysts or Economists, the Derivatives Research Analyst is responsible for the derivatives investment views, forecasts, and/or recommendations. Quantitative Research Review: UBS Global Research publishes a quantitative assessment of its analysts' responses to certain questions about the likelihood of an occurrence of a number of short term factors in a product known as the 'Quantitative Research Review'. Views contained in this assessment on a particular stock reflect only the views on those short term factors which are a different timeframe to the 12-month timeframe reflected in any equity rating set out in this note. For the latest responses, please see the Quantitative Research Review Addendum at the back of this report, where applicable. For previous responses please make reference to (i) previous UBS Global Research reports; and (ii) where no applicable research report was published that month, the Quantitative Research Review which can be found at <https://neo.ubs.com/quantitative>, or contact your UBS sales representative for access to the report or the Quantitative Research Team on ubs-quant-answers@ubs.com. A consolidated report which contains all responses is also available and again you should contact your UBS sales representative for details and pricing or the Quantitative Research team on the email above.

Analyst Certification:

Each research analyst primarily responsible for the content of this research report, in whole or in part, certifies that with respect to each security or issuer that the analyst covered in this report: (1) all of the views expressed accurately reflect his or her personal views about those securities or issuers and were prepared in an independent manner, including with respect to UBS, and (2) no part of his or her compensation was, is, or will be, directly or indirectly, related to the specific recommendations or views expressed by that research analyst in the research report.

Source: UBS. Rating allocations are as of 31 March 2026.

1:Percentage of companies under coverage globally within the 12-month rating category.

2:Percentage of companies within the 12-month rating category for which investment banking (IB) services were provided within the past 12 months.

3:Percentage of companies under coverage globally within the Short-Term rating category.

4:Percentage of companies within the Short-Term rating category for which investment banking (IB) services were provided within the past 12 months.

KEY DEFINITIONS: Forecast Stock Return (FSR) is defined as expected percentage price appreciation plus gross dividend yield over the next 12 months. In some cases, this yield may be based on accrued dividends. Market Return Assumption (MRA) is defined as the one-year local market interest rate plus 5% (a proxy for, and not a forecast of, the equity risk premium). Under Review (UR) Stocks may be flagged as UR by the analyst, indicating that the stock's price target and/or rating are subject to possible change in the near term, usually in response to an event that may affect the investment case or valuation. Equity Price Targets have an investment horizon of 12 months.

EXCEPTIONS AND SPECIAL CASES: UK and European Investment Fund ratings and definitions are: Buy: Positive on factors such as structure, management, performance record, discount; Neutral: Neutral on factors such as structure, management, performance record, discount; Sell: Negative on factors such as structure, management, performance record, discount. Core Banding Exceptions (CBE): Exceptions to the standard +/-6% bands may be granted by the Investment Review Consultation (IRC). Factors considered by the IRC include the stock's volatility and the credit spread of the respective company's debt. As a result, stocks deemed to be very high or low risk may be subject to higher or lower bands as they relate to the rating. When such exceptions apply, they will be identified in the Company Disclosures table in the relevant research piece.

It is not directed to, or intended for distribution to or use by, any person or entity who is a citizen or resident of or located in any locality, state, country or other jurisdiction where such distribution, publication, availability or use would be contrary to law or regulation or would subject UBS to any registration or licensing requirement within such jurisdiction.

This document is a general communication and is educational in nature; it is not an advertisement nor is it a solicitation or an offer to buy or sell any financial instruments or to participate in any particular trading strategy. Nothing in this document constitutes a representation that any investment strategy or recommendation is suitable or appropriate to an investor's individual circumstances or otherwise constitutes a personal recommendation. By providing this document, none of UBS or its representatives has any responsibility or authority to provide or have provided investment advice in a fiduciary capacity or otherwise. Investments involve risks, and investors should exercise prudence and their own judgment in making their investment decisions. None of UBS or its representatives is suggesting that the recipient or any other person take a specific course of action or any action at all. The recipient should carefully read this document in its entirety and not draw inferences or conclusions from the rating alone. By receiving this document, the recipient acknowledges and agrees with the intended purpose described above and further disclaims any expectation or belief that the information constitutes investment advice to the recipient or otherwise purports to meet the investment objectives of the recipient. The financial instruments described in the document may not be eligible for sale in all jurisdictions or to certain categories of investors.

Options, structured derivative products and futures (including OTC derivatives) are not suitable for all investors. Trading in these instruments is considered risky and may be appropriate only for sophisticated investors. Prior to buying or selling an option, and for the complete risks relating to options, you must receive a copy of "The Characteristics and Risks of Standardized Options." You may read the document at <https://www.theocc.com/publications/risks/riskchap1.jsp> or ask your salesperson for a copy. Various theoretical explanations of the risks associated with these instruments have been published. Supporting documentation for any claims, comparisons, recommendations, statistics or other technical data will be supplied upon request. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results. Transaction costs may be significant in option strategies calling for multiple purchases and sales of options, such as spreads and straddles. Because of the importance of tax considerations to many options transactions, the investor considering options should consult with his/her tax advisor as to how taxes affect the outcome of contemplated options transactions.

Mortgage and asset-backed securities may involve a high degree of risk and may be highly volatile in response to fluctuations in interest rates or other market conditions. Foreign currency rates of exchange may adversely affect the value, price or income of any security or related instrument referred to in the document. For investment advice, trade execution or other enquiries, clients should contact their local sales representative.

UBS notes that no globally accepted framework or definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) currently exists, nor is there a market consensus as to what constitutes an "ESG" (Environmental, Social or Governance) or an equivalent-label, or as to what precise attributes are required for the Information (as defined below) to be defined as ESG or equivalently-labelled. Any information, data or other content including from a third party source contained, referred to herein or used for whatsoever purpose by UBS or a third party ("Information"), in relation to any actual or potential ESG objective, issue or consideration is not intended to be relied upon for ESG classification, regulatory regime or industry initiative purposes ("ESG Regimes"). Nothing in these materials is intended to convey, suggest or indicate that UBS considers or represents any product, service, person or body mentioned in these materials as meeting or qualifying for any ESG classification, labelling or similar standards that may exist under the ESG Regimes. UBS has not conducted any assessment of compliance with ESG Regimes. Parties are reminded to make their own assessments for these purposes.

The value of any investment or income may go down as well as up, and investors may not get back the full (or any) amount invested. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Neither UBS nor any of its directors, employees or agents accepts any liability for any loss (including investment loss) or damage arising out of the use of all or any of the Information.

Prior to making any investment or financial decisions, any recipient of this document or the information should take steps to understand the risk and return of the investment and seek individualized advice from his or her personal financial, legal, tax and other professional advisors that takes into account all the particular facts and circumstances of his or her investment objectives.

Any prices stated in this document are for information purposes only and do not represent valuations for individual securities or other financial instruments. There is no representation that any transaction can or could have been effected at those prices, and any prices do not necessarily reflect UBS's internal books and records or theoretical model-based valuations and may be based on certain assumptions. Different assumptions by UBS or any other source may yield substantially different results.

No representation or warranty, either expressed or implied, is provided in relation to the accuracy, completeness or reliability of the information contained in any materials to which this document relates (the "Information"), except with respect to Information concerning UBS. The Information is not intended to be a complete statement or summary of the securities, markets or developments referred to in the document. UBS does not undertake to update or keep current the Information. Any statements contained in this report attributed to a third party represent UBS's interpretation of the data, information and/or opinions provided by that third party either publicly or through a subscription service, and such use and interpretation have not been reviewed by the third party. In no circumstances may this document or any of the Information (including any forecast, value, index or other calculated amount ("Values")) be used for any of the following purposes:

- (i) valuation or accounting purposes;
- (ii) to determine the amounts due or payable, the price or the value of any financial instrument or financial contract; or
- (iii) to measure the performance of any financial instrument including, without limitation, for the purpose of tracking the return or performance of any Value or of defining the asset allocation of portfolio or of computing performance fees.

By receiving this document and the Information you will be deemed to represent and warrant to UBS that you will not use this document or any of the Information for any of the above purposes or otherwise rely upon this document or any of the Information.

UBS has policies and procedures, which include, without limitation, independence policies and permanent information barriers, that are intended, and upon which UBS relies, to manage potential conflicts of interest and control the flow of information within divisions of UBS and among its subsidiaries, branches and affiliates. UBS Global Research will initiate, update and cease coverage solely at the discretion of UBS Global Research Management, which will also have sole discretion on the timing and frequency of any published research product. The analysis contained in this document is based on numerous assumptions. All material information in relation to published research reports, such as valuation methodology, risk statements, underlying assumptions (including sensitivity analysis of those assumptions), ratings history etc. as required by the Market Abuse Regulation, can be found on UBS Neo. Different assumptions could result in materially different results.

UBS Global Research may utilise artificial intelligence tools ("AI Tools") in the preparation of this document. Notwithstanding any such use of AI Tools, this document has undergone human review.

The analyst(s) responsible for the preparation of this document may interact with trading desk personnel, sales personnel and other parties for the purpose of gathering, applying and interpreting market information. UBS relies on information barriers to control the flow of information contained in one or more areas within UBS into other areas, units, groups or affiliates of UBS. The compensation of the analyst who prepared this document is determined exclusively by UBS Global Research management and senior management (not including investment banking). Analyst compensation is not based on investment banking revenues; however, compensation may relate to the revenues of UBS and/or its divisions as a whole, of which investment banking, sales and trading are a part, and UBS as a whole.

For financial instruments admitted to trading on an EU regulated market: UBS (excluding UBS Securities LLC) acts as a market maker or liquidity provider (in accordance with the interpretation of these terms under English law or, if not carried out by UBS in the UK the law of the relevant jurisdiction in which UBS determines it carries out the activity) in the financial instruments of the issuer save that where the activity of liquidity provider is carried out in accordance with the definition given to it by the laws and regulations of any other EU jurisdictions, such information is separately disclosed in this document. For financial instruments admitted to trading on a non-EU regulated market: UBS may act as a market maker save that where this activity is carried out in the US in accordance with the definition given to it by the relevant laws and regulations, such activity will be specifically disclosed in this document. UBS may have issued a warrant the value of which is based on one or more of the financial instruments referred to in the document. UBS and its affiliates and employees may have long or short positions, trade as principal and buy and sell in instruments or derivatives identified herein; such transactions or positions may be inconsistent with the opinions expressed in this document.

Within the past 12 months UBS may have received or provided investment services and activities or ancillary services as per MiFID II which may have given rise to a payment or promise of a payment in relation to these services from or to this company.

Please note that all transactions conducted by UBS are consistent with sanctions regulations imposed by Switzerland, the European Union, the United Nations, the United Kingdom and the United States, per UBS' global sanctions policy. UBS opinion as to future investment worthiness assumes no new sanctions are imposed.

Risk information:

You agree that you shall not copy, revise, amend, create a derivative work, provide to any third party, or in any way commercially exploit any UBS research, and that you shall not extract data from any research or estimates, without the prior written consent of UBS.

This document is for distribution only as may be permitted by law. It is not directed to, or intended for distribution to or use by, any person or entity who is a citizen or resident of or located in any locality, state, country or other jurisdiction where such distribution, publication, availability or use would be contrary to law or regulation or would subject UBS to any registration or licensing requirement within such jurisdiction.

This document is for your information only; it is not an advertisement nor is it a solicitation or an offer to buy or sell any financial instruments or to participate in any particular trading strategy. Nothing in this document constitutes a representation that any investment strategy or recommendation is suitable or appropriate to an investor's individual circumstances or otherwise constitutes a personal recommendation. By providing this document, none of UBS or its representatives has any responsibility or authority to provide or have provided investment advice in a fiduciary capacity or otherwise. Investments involve risks, and investors should exercise prudence and their own judgment in making their investment decisions. None of UBS or its representatives is suggesting that the recipient or any other person take a specific course of action or any action at all. By receiving this document, the recipient acknowledges and agrees with the intended purpose described above and further disclaims any expectation or belief that the information constitutes investment advice to the recipient or otherwise purports to meet the investment objectives of the recipient. The financial instruments described in the document may not be eligible for sale in all jurisdictions or to certain categories of investors.

Options, derivative products and futures are not suitable for all investors, and trading in these instruments is considered risky. Mortgage and asset-backed securities may involve a high degree of risk and may be highly volatile in response to fluctuations in interest rates or other market conditions. Foreign currency rates of exchange may adversely affect the value, price or income of any security or related instrument referred to in the document. For investment advice, trade execution or other enquiries, clients should contact their local sales representative.

The value of any investment or income may go down as well as up, and investors may not get back the full (or any) amount invested. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Neither UBS nor any of its directors, employees or agents accepts any liability for any loss (including investment loss) or damage arising out of the use of all or any of the information (as defined below).

Prior to making any investment or financial decisions, any recipient of this document or the information should take steps to understand the risk and return of the investment and seek individualized advice from his or her personal financial, legal, tax and other professional advisors that takes into account all the particular facts and circumstances of his or her investment objectives.

Any prices stated in this document are for information purposes only and do not represent valuations for individual securities or other financial instruments. There is no representation that any transaction can or could have been effected at those prices, and any prices do not necessarily reflect UBS's internal books and records or theoretical model-based valuations and may be based on certain assumptions. Different assumptions by UBS or any other source may yield substantially different results.

No representation or warranty, either expressed or implied, is provided in relation to the accuracy, completeness or reliability of the information contained in any materials to which this document relates (the "Information"), except with respect to Information concerning UBS. The Information is not intended to be a complete statement or summary of the securities, markets or developments referred to in the document. UBS does not undertake to update or keep current the Information. Any opinions expressed in this document may change without notice and may differ or be contrary to opinions expressed by other business areas or groups, personnel or other representative of UBS. Any statements contained in this report attributed to a third party represent UBS's interpretation of the data, information and/or opinions provided by that third party either publicly or through a subscription service, and such use and interpretation have not been reviewed by the third party. In no circumstances may this document or any of the Information (including any forecast, value, index or other calculated amount ("Values")) be used for any of the following purposes: (i) valuation or accounting purposes; (ii) to determine the amounts due or payable, the price or the value of any financial instrument or financial contract; or (iii) to measure the performance of any financial instrument including, without limitation, for the purpose of tracking the return or performance of any Value or of defining the asset allocation of portfolio or of computing performance fees.

By receiving this document and the Information you will be deemed to represent and warrant to UBS that you will not use this document or any of the Information for any of the above purposes or otherwise rely upon this document or any of the Information.

UBS has policies and procedures, which include, without limitation, independence policies and permanent information barriers, that are intended, and upon which UBS relies, to manage potential conflicts of interest and control the flow of information within divisions of UBS (including between Global Wealth Management and UBS Global Research) and among its subsidiaries, branches and affiliates. For further information on the ways in which UBS manages conflicts and maintains independence of its research products, historical performance information and certain additional disclosures concerning UBS research recommendations, please visit <https://www.ubs.com/research-methodology>.

Research will initiate, update and cease coverage solely at the discretion of research management, which will also have sole discretion on the timing and frequency of any published research product. The analysis contained in this document is based on numerous assumptions. Different assumptions could result in materially different results.

The analyst(s) responsible for the preparation of this document may interact with trading desk personnel, sales personnel and other parties for the purpose of gathering, applying and interpreting market information. UBS relies on information barriers to control the flow of information contained in one or more areas within UBS into other areas, units, groups or affiliates of UBS. The compensation of the analyst who prepared this document is determined exclusively by research management and senior management (not including investment banking). Analyst compensation is not based on investment banking revenues; however, compensation may relate to the revenues of UBS and/or its divisions as a whole, of which investment banking, sales and trading are a part, and UBS's subsidiaries, branches and affiliates as a whole.

For financial instruments admitted to trading on an EU regulated market: UBS AG, its affiliates or subsidiaries (excluding UBS Securities LLC) acts as a market maker or liquidity provider (in accordance with the interpretation of these terms in the UK) in the financial instruments of the issuer save that where the activity of liquidity provider is carried out in accordance with the definition given to it by the laws and regulations of any other EU jurisdictions, such information is separately disclosed in this document. For financial instruments admitted to trading on a non-EU regulated market: UBS may act as a market maker save that where this activity is carried out in the US in accordance with the definition given to it by the relevant laws and regulations, such activity will be specifically disclosed in this document. UBS may have issued a warrant the value of which is based on one or more of the financial instruments referred to in the document. UBS and its affiliates and employees may have long or short positions, trade as principal and buy and sell in instruments or derivatives identified herein; such transactions or positions may be inconsistent with the opinions expressed in this document.

Options and futures are not suitable for all investors, and trading in these instruments is considered risky and may be appropriate only for sophisticated investors. Prior to buying or selling an option, and for the complete risks relating to options, you must receive a copy of "Characteristics and Risks of Standardized Options". You may read the document at <https://www.theocc.com/about/publications/character-risks.jsp> or ask your financial advisor for a copy.

Investing in structured investments involves significant risks. For a detailed discussion of the risks involved in investing in any particular structured investment, you must read the relevant offering materials for that investment. Structured investments are unsecured obligations of a particular issuer with returns linked to the performance of an underlying asset. Depending on the terms of the investment, investors could lose all or a substantial portion of their investment based on the performance of the underlying asset. Investors could also lose their entire investment if the issuer becomes insolvent. UBS does not guarantee in any way the obligations or the financial condition of any issuer or the accuracy of any financial information provided by any issuer. Structured investments are not traditional investments and investing in a structured investment is not equivalent to investing directly in the underlying asset. Structured investments may have limited or no liquidity, and investors should be prepared to hold their investment to maturity. The return of structured investments may be limited by a maximum gain, participation rate or other feature. Structured investments may include call features and, if a structured investment is called early, investors would not earn any further return and may not be able to reinvest in similar investments with similar terms. Structured investments include costs and fees which are generally embedded in the price of the investment. The tax treatment of a structured investment may be complex and may differ from a direct investment in the underlying asset. UBS and its employees do not provide tax advice. Investors should consult their own tax advisor about their own tax situation before investing in any securities.

Important Information About Sustainable Investing Strategies: Sustainable investing strategies aim to consider and incorporate environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors into investment process and portfolio construction. Strategies across geographies approach ESG analysis and incorporate the findings in a variety of ways. Incorporating ESG factors or Sustainable Investing considerations may inhibit the portfolio manager's ability to participate in certain investment opportunities that otherwise would be consistent with its investment objective and other principal investment strategies. The returns on a portfolio incorporating ESG factors or Sustainable Investing considerations may be lower or higher than portfolios where ESG factors, exclusions, or other sustainability issues are not considered by the portfolio manager, and the investment opportunities available to such portfolios may differ.

Within the past 12 months UBS Switzerland AG, its affiliates or subsidiaries may have received or provided investment services and activities or ancillary services as per MiFID II which may have given rise to a payment or promise of a payment in relation to these services from or to this company.
